Fine Dining

by Hansi Treichl

It is my desire to bring the best Austrian products onto the plate in connection with the respective seasons. I have always held our local producers and their products in such high esteem that it is my declared aim to stage these products as the main protagonists and to complement them with small international influences.

In this spirit, I wish you a special culinary evening.

Your Hansi Treichl

You trust us,
we trust:

porcini mushroom: forests of Alpbach

plum & apple: Alpbach
